

Diamond Stud Earrings - Classically Timeless and Elegantly Effortless

Diamond Stud Earrings are your classic, everyday, go-to accessory that every girl should own. But you have choices! Choose a traditional four prong basket setting or the modern three prong "martini" style that sits deeper into the ear. Are you tired of the very secure yet time consuming screw back? Try a positive locking back instead. Once you get used to them, they are a breeze to use and you will be confident your earrings are safe.

Please let us clean those diamond earrings! We clean them for free, while you wait, and you will be astonished how they sparkle.

Do you already have diamond studs? Ask us about our Diamond Earring Trade Up Program - we make diamonds "grow"!

Spread the Joy of Diamonds with Simon G!

"When it comes to making beautiful jewelry, no detail is too small to be ignored." - Simon G

We take pride in our dedication to integrity, quality, value and personal service. It can be challenging to find jewelry suppliers that are as committed to these values as we are.

That is a large reason we have few big brands in our store.

As in any industry, when buying a big brand you usually pay more for the name. That doesn't sit well with us and that is probably one of the reasons you fell in love with The King's Jewelers.

Simon G is a designer that we are thrilled to have in our cases and in our own personal jewelry boxes.

They have proven themselves to continually offer designs and quality at the right price. We love that they are a family-owned California business. We admire their determination to use only conflict free, high quality diamonds in every piece they create. We enjoy the quality they insist on, which means secure settings and less repairs for us and most importantly, for you. Next time you visit us, make sure you try on a Simon G piece and enjoy their artistry.

Diamond Reflections

A diamond's sparkle is a reflection of the light that shines into it and symbolizes the emotion and history behind each gem.

A diamond reflects your family.
 A diamond reflects your love.
 A diamond reflects your style.

Spring Cleaning Clearance April Only!
